At the end of each course students will receive an attendance certificate corresponding to the course level attended, called ADA certificate (Dante Alighieri Certificate).

The ADA certificate, the same and unique all over the world, is traceable and certifies attendance to the courses belonging to Dante Alighieri's curricular programme, ADA's course plan, according to educational experiences and teaching quality constantly monitored by PLIDA's Scientific Board.

WHAT IS ADA'S COURSE PLAN:

ADA's course plan is the curricular and educational planning system of the Dante Alighieri Society.

It has been designed and developed as a planning and teaching tool for all Dante's Committees in the world and for all the institutions offering Italian courses to foreign people.

The plan describes all the contents which, when handled properly from an educational point of view, may allow for the development of the student's linguistic competence on a given level.

ADA covers the six levels provided for by the Common European Framework of Reference for Languages (CEFR) (A1, A2, B1, B2, C1, and C2).

The Italian language schools of Rome, Bologna, Florence and Milan are PLIDA certification centres.

It is possible to enrol for the PLIDA Certificate exam right here in those schools, in order to confirm one's Italian language level. A PLIDA Certificate will be obtained after passing the exam.

The PLIDA (Dante Alighieri Italian Language Project) Certificate confirms competence in Italian as a foreign language in accordance with the six levels laid out in the Common European Framework of Reference for Languages of the Council of the European Union (levels A1-C2).

THE PLIDA CERTIFICATE ALLOWS ITS HOLDER TO:

- indicate his/her Italian language knowledge in the most transparent way on his/her curriculum vitae;
- enrol in an Italian University without having to take the Italian language exam (level B2 or C1);
- obtain the residency permit or the long residency permit (level A2 et seq).

To know more about the PLIDA tests and the acknowledgements of the PLIDA certificate, please visit www.plida.it

To enrol for the next PLIDA session contact the school office directly and ask for more information.
